4. FACTS THAT JUSTIFY SOLE SOURCE PROCUREMENT:

CFSA youth (J) is a 14-year-old AA adolescent female diagnosed with conduct disorder, unspecified trauma and stressor related disorder was recommended for residential level of care in context of aggressive and destructive behaviors, dangerous impulsivity, and oppositional behaviors. This youth has a longstanding, pervasive struggle with oppositional behaviors and behavioral appropriateness. Behaviors also include lack of accountability, blaming others, engaging in disrespect and oppositional behaviors with figures of authority, verbal and physical aggression toward peers and staff alike, as well as “extensive” property damage history and elopement history. This youth has also attempted to put a baby into a dryer, hiding knives under her bed. Emotional dysregulation episodes are described as kicking, screaming, throwing items. She has a history of stealing from peers in milieu, and lying about it. Her referral was sent to all CFSA contracted facilities and was only accepted to Devereux FL, however, there were no slots available until after the new year.

CFSA also have another youth (AS) who have been diagnosed with bipolar disorder (current episode manic severe with psychotic features), disappearance and death of a family member, and bereavement (uncomplicated). AS's maternal grandmother died last year, and AS missed the funeral due to being hospitalized. She has a history of frequent hospitalizations for self-harm (cutting of her wrists), suicide attempt (taking pills), suicidal ideation (stating that she is better off dead or that she wants to jump off of a bridge), and homicidal ideation (stating that she wanted to fight and kill her cyberbully). She also displays a range of emotions. Sometimes she is happy, sometimes she is sad, and sometimes she is very angry. Her primary emotion is sadness, while her most repressed emotion appears to be happiness. She had been approved by HSCSN prior to being in the care and custody of CFSA.
